Transfer Goals

Transfer Goals

Literary criticism is a tool for interpreting literature through various lenses.

Standards

Reading Standards

LA.RI.11-12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence, (e.g., via discussion, written response, etc.), to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferentially, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LA.RI.11-12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of a text, and analyze their development and how they interact to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.3	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
LA.RI.11-12.6	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.9	Analyze and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) documents of historical and literary significance for their themes, purposes and rhetorical features, including primary source documents relevant to U.S. and/or global history.
LA.RL.11-12.1	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LA.RL.11-12.2	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.

LA.RL.11-12.3	Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LA.RL.11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (e.g., Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LA.RL.11-12.5	Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LA.RL.11-12.6	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LA.RL.11-12.7	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (e.g., Shakespeare and other authors.)
LA.RL.11-12.9	Demonstrate knowledge of and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early twentieth-century foundational works of literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LA.RL.11-12.10b	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at grade level or above.

Writing Standards

LA.W.11-12.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
LA.W.11-12.3.A	Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.
LA.W.11-12.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
LA.W.11-12.3.C	Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).
LA.W.11-12.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.
LA.W.11-12.3.E	Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
	Production and Distribution of Writing

Language and Speaking Standards

LA.L.11-12.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
LA.L.11-12.1.A	Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and is sometimes contested.
LA.L.11-12.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

LA.L.11-12.2.A	Observe hyphenation conventions.
LA.L.11-12.2.B	Spell correctly.
LA.L.11-12.3	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
LA.L.11-12.4	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
LA.L.11-12.4.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word’s position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
LA.L.11-12.4.B	Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable).
LA.L.11-12.4.C	Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage.
LA.L.11-12.4.D	Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
LA.L.11-12.5	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
LA.L.11-12.5.A	Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
LA.L.11-12.5.B	Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.
LA.L.11-12.6	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
LA.SL.11-12.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
LA.SL.11-12.1.A	Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well reasoned exchange of ideas.
LA.SL.11-12.1.B	Collaborate with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and assessments (e.g., student developed rubrics), and establish individual roles as needed.
LA.SL.11-12.1.C	Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
LA.SL.11-12.1.D	Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.
LA.SL.11-12.3	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LA.SL.11-12.4	Present information, findings and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically. The content, organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
LA.SL.11-12.5	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.

LA.SL.11-12.6

Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

LA.11-12.SL.11-12.2

Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.

Life Literacies & Key Skills

TECH.9.4.12.CI.1

Demonstrate the ability to reflect, analyze, and use creative skills and ideas (e.g., 1.1.12prof.CR3a).

TECH.9.4.12.CI.2

Identify career pathways that highlight personal talents, skills, and abilities (e.g., 1.4.12prof.CR2b, 2.2.12.LF.8).

TECH.9.4.12.CI.3

Investigate new challenges and opportunities for personal growth, advancement, and transition (e.g., 2.1.12.PGD.1).

TECH.9.4.12.CT.1

Identify problem-solving strategies used in the development of an innovative product or practice (e.g., 1.1.12acc.C1b, 2.2.12.PF.3).

TECH.9.4.12.DC.6

Select information to post online that positively impacts personal image and future college and career opportunities.

TECH.9.4.12.IML.2

Evaluate digital sources for timeliness, accuracy, perspective, credibility of the source, and relevance of information, in media, data, or other resources (e.g., NJSLSA.W8, Social Studies Practice: Gathering and Evaluating Sources).

TECH.9.4.12.IML.8

Evaluate media sources for point of view, bias, and motivations (e.g., NJSLSA.R6, 7.1.AL.IPRET.6).

TECH.9.4.12.IML.9

Analyze the decisions creators make to reveal explicit and implicit messages within information and media (e.g., 1.5.12acc.C2a, 7.1.IL.IPRET.4).

Concepts

Understandings

Technology Integration and Differentiated Instruction

Technology Integration

- Google Classroom/Edmodo- Used for daily interactions with the students covering a vast majority of different educational resources (Daily Notes, Exit Tickets, Classroom Polls, Quick Checks, Additional Resources/ Support, Class work/homework, etc.)
- Using various programs connected with Google to collaborate within the district, co-teachers, grade level partner teacher, and with students to stay connected with the content that is covered within the topic. Used to collect data in real time see results upon completion of the assignments to allow for 21st century learning.
- One to One Student laptops- All students within the West Deptford School District are given a computer, allowing for 21st century learning to occur within every lesson/topic.
- Additional support videos (Ted Talks)
- Use of search engines, online websites, databases, etc.
- Online assessments (LinkIt, Google Forms, CommonLit)
- Review of information/terms/etc. (Kahoot.com and Quizlet.com)
- IXL

Differentiated Instruction

Gifted Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

Within each lesson, the gifted students are given choice on topic and subject matter allowing them to explore interests appropriate to their abilities, areas of interest, and other courses. Teachers may provide additional titles to further challenge advanced readers.

English Language Learners (N.J.A.C.6A:15)

Within each lesson, the English Language Learners are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability to grasp the language.

All assignments have been created in the student's native language.

Work with ELL Teacher to allow for all assignments to be completed with extra time.

At-Risk Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-4.3c)

Within each lesson, the at-risk students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest. Teachers may choose to utilize ICR activities with CP students as needed.

- Teachers may modify pacing to accommodate student needs and review topics from earlier grade levels when data indicates a need.
- IXL levels can be modified to address areas of opportunity in student learning.

Special Education Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

- Within each lesson, special education students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest.
- All content will be modeled with examples, and all essays are built on a step-by-step basis so modifications for assignments in small chunks are met. ICR specific activities for chunking and reteaching are underlined in learning plan.
- Access to online and audio text will be made available whenever possible to accommodate struggling readers.
- All other IEP modifications will be honored (ie. hard copies of notes, directions restated, etc.)

Interdisciplinary Connections

MATH -

SCIENCE -

SOCIAL STUDIES - Background information about medieval life and culture.

WORLD LANGUAGES - Expose students to olde English version of Beowulf.

VISUAL/PERFORMING ARTS - Watch multiple adaptations of an epic.

APPLIED TECHNOLOGY -

BUSINESS EDUCATION -

GLOBAL AWARENESS - Understand origin stories from various parts of the world.

Transfer Goals

Transfer Goals

Literary criticism is a tool for interpreting literature through various lenses.

Concepts

Essential Questions

- How does culture shape the way we see the world, others and ourselves?
- What are the factors that create an imbalance of power within a culture? Between people?
- How do a person's actions affect his or her own destiny and the destinies of others?
- How does a flawed character (or person) seek redemption?
- In what ways do "single stories" impact our own identities, how we view others, and the choices we make?
- How do ignorance and fear lead to intolerance?

Understandings

Students will understand...

1. The exploration of a story deepens understanding of one's identity, others and the world.
2. People understand text and story differently depending on their worldviews and perspectives.
3. Language shapes ideas and influences others.
4. Having multiple narratives in conversation with one another allows students to have the opportunity to better understand social justice issues such as race, class, and gender and how these may impact social inequality.
5. Texts are socially, culturally, geographically, and historically constructed.
6. Stories can deepen understanding of complex and abstract ideas.

7. Pre-conceived notions of story do not encompass all stories being told.
8. Multicultural texts exist within our repertoire of literary knowledge.
9. That it is a natural and common human behavior to group the people and things we encounter in the world into categories, but that sometimes these categories become “single stories” that give us incomplete and simplistic understandings of the identities of others.

Critical Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Students will know..

1. How to ask questions before, during and after reading to boost their understanding of a text.
2. How to identify the author’s purpose in writing the novel.
3. That characters' words and actions deepen the reader's understanding of the character and plot.
4. That good readers refer back to the text often.
5. How to identify theme.
6. How to identify types of irony.
7. How to list direct and indirect characterization techniques.
8. How to identify between dynamic and static characters.
9. How to identify elements of plot within the novel.
10. How to maintain a double-entry notebook.
11. How to utilize active reading strategies.
12. How to define autobiography.
13. How to apply the key concepts and vocabulary associated with the chosen critical lens in generating an analysis of the text.

Skills

Students will be able to..

1. Read independently over a period of time.
2. Reflect on their reading through discussion and writing.
3. Identify the elements of fiction most prominently at work within a story.
4. Relate personal experiences to the actions and motivations of the characters within the novels.
5. Write a detailed analytical essay with textual support.
6. Question literature through discussion.
7. Understand the meaning of literary terms and be able to identify them throughout the novel.
8. Create multi-media presentations.
9. Recognize that it is a natural and common human behavior to group the people and things we encounter in the world into categories, but that sometimes these categories become “single stories” that give us incomplete and simplistic understandings of the identities of others.

10. Identify the elements of a fairy tale

Technology Integration and Differentiated Instruction

Technology Integration

- Google Classroom/Edmodo- Used for daily interactions with the students covering a vast majority of different educational resources (Daily Notes, Exit Tickets, Classroom Polls, Quick Checks, Additional Resources/ Support, Class work/homework, etc.)
- Using various programs connected with Google to collaborate within the district, co-teachers, grade level partner teacher, and with students to stay connected with the content that is covered within the topic. Used to collect data in real time see results upon completion of the assignments to allow for 21st century learning.
- One to One Student laptops- All students within the West Deptford School District are given a computer, allowing for 21st century learning to occur within every lesson/topic.
- Additional Support Videos (Ted Talks)
- Use of search engines, online websites, databases, etc.
- Online assessments (LinkIt, Google Forms, CommonLit)
- Review of information/terms/etc. (Kahoot.com and Quizlet.com)
- IXL

Differentiated Instruction

Gifted Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

Within each lesson, the gifted students are given choice on topic and subject matter allowing them to explore interests appropriate to their abilities, areas of interest and other courses. Teachers may provide additional titles to further challenge advanced readers.

English Language Learners (N.J.A.C.6A:15)

Within each lesson, the English Language Learners are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability to grasp the language.

All assignments have been created in the student's native language.

Work with ELL Teacher to allow for all assignments to be completed with extra time.

At-Risk Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-4.3c)

Within each lesson, the at-risk students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest. Teachers may choose to utilize ICR activities with CP students as needed.

Teachers may modify pacing to accommodate student needs and review topics from earlier grade levels when data indicates a need.

IXL levels can be modified to address areas of opportunity in student learning.

Special Education Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

Within each lesson, special education students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest.

All content will be modeled with examples, and all essays are built on a step-by-step basis so modifications for assignments in small chunks are met. ICR specific activities for chunking and reteaching are underlined in learning plan.

Access to online and audio text will be made available whenever possible to accommodate struggling readers.

All other IEP modifications will be honored (i.e. hard copies of notes, directions restated, etc.)

Standards

Reading Standards

LA.RI.11-12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence, (e.g., via discussion, written response, etc.), to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferentially, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LA.RI.11-12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of a text, and analyze their development and how they interact to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.3	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
LA.RI.11-12.5	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LA.RI.11-12.6	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LA.RI.11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LA.RI.11-12.8	Describe and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. and global texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning (e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy (e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses).
LA.RI.11-12.9	Analyze and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) documents of historical and literary significance for their themes, purposes and rhetorical features, including primary source documents relevant to U.S. and/or global history.

Writing Standards

LA.W.11-12.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
LA.W.11-12.2.A	Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.

- LA.W.11-12.2.B Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience’s knowledge of the topic.
- LA.W.11-12.2.C Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.
- LA.W.11-12.2.D Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.
- LA.W.11-12.2.E Establish and maintain a style and tone appropriate to the audience and purpose (e.g., formal and objective for academic writing) while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
- LA.W.11-12.2.F Provide a concluding paragraph or section that supports the argument presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
- LA.W.11-12.5 Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach, or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.

Language and Speaking Standards

- LA.L.11-12.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
- LA.L.11-12.2 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- LA.L.11-12.2.B Spell correctly.
- LA.L.11-12.5 Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
- LA.L.11-12.5.A Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
- LA.SL.11-12.1 Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
- LA.SL.11-12.1.A Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well reasoned exchange of ideas.
- LA.SL.11-12.1.B Collaborate with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and assessments (e.g., student developed rubrics), and establish individual roles as needed.
- LA.SL.11-12.1.C Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
- LA.SL.11-12.1.D Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.
- LA.SL.11-12.4 Present information, findings and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically. The content, organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

Transfer Goals

Transfer Goals

Literary criticism is a tool for interpreting literature through various lenses.

Concepts

Essential Questions

Essential Questions for The Glass Castle:

1. How do parenting styles serve as a complex issue among people in our society?
2. How does Walls use symbolism and imagery to establish a clear tone for each memory?
3. How and why do social classes of our society clash in such intense ways?
4. What are the characteristics of a memoir and how do they differ from other styles of reading?
5. How might we deal with traumatic situations in a positive way to keep relationships with those a part of it?

6. How does Walls choose to structure the memories she did and how do they connect?

Essential Questions for the research paper:

1. What makes a source credible?
2. How do I effectively gather research?
3. How do I avoid plagiarism within my writing?
4. How do I utilize the writing process to draft a multi-paragraph paper?

Understandings

Students will understand that...

1. The events and circumstances of an author's life are often reflected in the literary works he or she creates.
2. The context for a literary work includes information about the author, the historical events that pertain to the author, and paradigm(s) prevalent at the time of writing.
3. Interpretation of the work should be primarily concerned with how the author's life experiences shape the text in intended and unintended ways.
4. Societal expectations impact a character's decisions to be a part of or remove themselves from society.

Critical Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Students will know...

1. How to go back into the story to answer questions sufficiently with textual evidence and details.
2. How to conduct research using valid and reliable resources.
3. How to utilize the writing process.
4. How to analyze theme, plot, setting and characterization.
5. How to analyze text through a biographical lens and write analytically about it.
6. How to apply the key concepts and vocabulary associated with the chosen critical lens in generating an analysis of the text.
7. How to analyze key sources to deepen their understanding and answer their inquiry questions.
8. How to synthesize their information to determine what they have learned and what more they need to know about their area of investigation. They gather and analyze more information to complete their inquiry.

Skills

Students will be able to:

1. Conduct meaningful, relevant research on biographical and/or historical contexts using academic databases and other scholarly resources.
2. Explain how biographical and/or historical information contributes to the meaning of the text.
3. Connect elements of plot, character, setting, motif, and theme to the author's life and/or historical context(s).
4. Explain the ways in which the text illuminates the ideas and attitudes of its era.
5. Research the author's life.
6. Research the author's historical and literary period, including their intellectual paradigm.
7. Search for meaningful connections between the text and the author's life, doing additional research as needed.
8. Interpret the meaning of the work by analyzing: characters and setting on the basis of their similarity to people and places in the author's life, tone with reference to an author's social, political, and/or religious beliefs, and symbols in the context of contemporary meanings or allusions.
9. Define and use new vocabulary words
10. Identify elements of figurative language.
11. Identify theme.
12. Maintain a double-entry journal.
13. Summarize.
14. Utilize the writing process effectively.
15. Connect prior knowledge with text to enhance understanding.
16. Ask and answer questions before, during, and after reading.
17. Use connections to enhance understanding of text.
18. Demonstrate comprehension orally and in writing.
19. Discuss the role of the protagonist(s) and antagonist(s).
20. Use text evidence to support inferential thinking.
21. Take notes, make lists, and/or diagram to generate ideas about a subject or topic.
22. Participate in group discussions: acknowledge other points of view, initiate questions, share insights and opinions, and elaborate upon ideas

By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at grade level or above.

Writing Standards

LA.W.11-12.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
LA.W.11-12.2.A	Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
LA.W.11-12.2.B	Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.
LA.W.11-12.2.C	Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.
LA.W.11-12.2.D	Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.
LA.W.11-12.2.E	Establish and maintain a style and tone appropriate to the audience and purpose (e.g., formal and objective for academic writing) while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
LA.W.11-12.2.F	Provide a concluding paragraph or section that supports the argument presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
LA.W.11-12.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LA.W.11-12.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach, or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LA.W.11-12.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, share, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LA.W.11-12.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LA.W.11-12.8	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation. (MLA or APA Style Manuals).

Technology Integration and Differentiated Instruction

Technology Integration

- Google Classroom/Edmodo- Used for daily interactions with the students covering a vast majority of different educational resources (Daily Notes, Exit Tickets, Classroom Polls, Quick Checks, Additional Resources/ Support, Class work/homework, etc.)
- Using various programs connected with Google to collaborate within the district, co-teachers, grade level partner teacher, and with students to stay connected with the content that is covered within the topic. Used to collect data in real time see results upon completion of the assignments to allow for 21st century learning.
- One to One Student laptops- All students within the West Deptford School District are given a computer, allowing for 21st century learning to occur within every lesson/topic.
- Additional Support Videos (Ted Talks)
- Use of search engines, online websites, databases, etc.
- Online assessments (LinkIt, Google Forms, CommonLit)
- Review of information/terms/etc. (Kahoot.com and Quizlet.com)
- IXL

Differentiated Instruction

Gifted Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

Within each lesson, the gifted students are given choice on topic and subject matter allowing them to explore interests appropriate to their abilities, areas of interest and other courses. Teachers may provide additional titles to further challenge advanced readers.

English Language Learners (N.J.A.C.6A:15)

Within each lesson, the English Language Learners are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability to grasp the language.

All assignments have been created in the student's native language.

Work with ELL Teacher to allow for all assignments to be completed with extra time.

At-Risk Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-4.3c)

Within each lesson, the at-risk students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest. Teachers may choose to utilize ICR activities with CP students as needed.

Teachers may modify pacing to accommodate student needs and review topics from earlier grade levels when data indicates a need.

IXL levels can be modified to address areas of opportunity in student learning.

Special Education Students (N.J.A.C.6A:8-3.1)

Within each lesson, special education students are given choice of topic and resources so that their materials are within their ability level and high-interest.

All content will be modeled with examples and all essays are built on a step-by-step basis so modifications for assignments in small chunks are met. ICR specific activities for chunking and reteaching are underlined in learning plan.

Access to online and audio text will be made available whenever possible to accommodate struggling readers.

All other IEP modifications will be honored (ie. hard copies of notes, directions restated, etc.)
